

FALLS CITY, NEB., Mch. 28th, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—I go to Sunday school every Sunday that it is nice. My teacher's name is A. H. Lichty. I am ten years old. I live three miles from church.

Good-bye,

C. GUY LICHTY.

Yours is a very good letter, Guy, except that you wrote on each line of the paper. In your next tell us the name of the man who tried to walk on the water and why he could not walk all the way.

FREEPORT, MICH., March 30th, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my first attempt to write for the children's column. I am in favor of a page in the paper for the children. We have no Sunday school here now but will commence again about the first of April. I like to go to Sunday school.

Good-bye,

AMANDA RENCH.

You did well, Amanda. Try again.

FLORA, IND., March 28th, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—We meet every Sunday at the Brethren church in Social meeting. My papa organized the Social meeting. It is organized and run in form of the Christian Endeavor. So that gives us younger ones a chance as well as the older ones. I am twelve years old and belong to the Brethren church. Brother B. H. Flora preaches for us every two weeks. I like to read the little folks' letters, but have never written before.

Yours,

MATTIE LITTLE.

You have observed our rule very well, Mattie. And we hope you will find it a pleasure to write for the Evangelist.

CENTERVILLE, IA., Mch. 30th, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my first attempt to write for the children's column. I am nine years old. I have a little brother three years old. We have no Brethren church near here. We go to the Methodist meeting. I hope Homer will get well.

OLA MOSS.

Quite a good letter, Ola. In your next tell us what Brother Enslow said the last time you heard him preach. You should try to remember at least one thing from each sermon you hear.

KUNKLE, OHIO, April 3rd, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—I am in favor of having a page for the children. I was to church last Sunday. It is raining to day. I am reading a book through; it is called the "Story of the Bible". I like it so far real well. There is an old lady dead in Kunkle and an old gentleman in Pioneer. This is all I can say, so

Good-bye,

PEARL M. YAGEL.

Write again, Pearl.

ANKNEYTOWN, OHIO, March 31, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—Our Sabbath school will begin tomorrow. We will use the Brethren quarterlies. J. C. Beal will be our superintendent. We expect to have a good School. We will move to the country next Tuesday. Papa takes our church paper. We are always anxious to read it; when we have read it we give it to our neighbors to read. We are sorry that Homer is not better yet. Enclosed find one dime for Bro. Holsinger.

Edna Beal.

You are doing a good work by giving your paper to others to read. God will bless you for each unselfish deed done in his name.

WATERLOO, IOWA, Mar. 4, '94.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is a very rainy day, and we were not at church. I am glad to hear Homer is getting well, and hope he will get entirely well and come to visit us with his papa and mamma, some time. Mr. Wm. Ikenberry of Waterloo, died on Friday night, and will be buried on Tuesday. His brother died in Greene, the same afternoon of Lung Fever.

EDITH LICHTY.

Edith by mistake your letter was put among some other letters and so is late. It is a good one. It would afford Homer and his pa and ma great pleasure to visit you again.

SHERWOOD, O., Mar. 29th, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—The vacation is over and I am going to school now. I will answer D. C. Moomaw's question. His subject is found in Matt. xiv, 1-12. It teaches Herod's opinion of Christ. His other question is: What is the name and age of the youngest of Israel's kings, and what does it teach you? His name was Joash, he was seven years old when he began to reign. It teaches us that as long as we serve God we will prosper.

Yours Truly,

CLARA SHOE.

You answered these questions very nicely. It will be well for you always to give the scriptural reference in your answer.

LANARK, ILL., March 29th, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—Emma Lichty requested me to write a letter for the EVANGELIST. There were sixty-five Juniors present Sunday evening. Mr. Sheller instructed us. He talked about God leading the children of Israel through the wilderness and the Red Sea. The Lord shewed them the way by day with a pillar of cloud and by night with a pillar of fire. That is the way he will do with all his children that believe and do his will. We had nice exercises Sunday evening. There was singing, speaking and what was called the pilgrim vision. Everybody was well pleased. Good bye,

ANNIE VIOLA THORNTON.

Annie we are pleased to know you are one of the Juniors at Lanark. We hope you will be the means of doing much good for Jesus.

BURLINGTON, IND., Mch. 28th, '94.

DEAR EDITOR:—I am nine years old. We live two miles and a half from Salem church. Mr. Summers is our preacher. He is a good preacher. My papa and mamma belong to the Brethren church. We have not had Sunday school since Christmas. But it will commence next Sunday. I have a sister twelve years old. And she is learning to play on the organ. When I am a woman I want to be a school teacher.

MYRTLE HARREL.

An excellent letter. Myrtle, we surely think you will be able to teach school if you are diligent and keep God's law so as to preserve your health.

BURLINGTON, IND., March 20th, '94.

DEAR EDITOR:—I hope there will be more children that will write. I will write two letters next month because I have not made up for January. We organized Sunday school last Sunday at Salem church. There was a meeting at the Brethren church last Sunday. All of our family belong to the Brethren church but the three smallest. I have three brothers and two sisters.

FANNIE GORDON.

Very good, Fannie. We hope God's word will be opened to you this summer as it never has before. Each teacher and pupil should ask God for light to understand his work.

NORTH LIBERTY, O., Mar. 29th, '94.

DEAR EDITOR:—Last Sabbath was Easter. Bro Calvert preached on the Resurrection of Christ. And about Mary going to the sepulcher and finding Jesus not there. I am a member of the Young People's Society that was just organized a short time ago. I am learning a recitation for the next meeting which is on Sunday evening April 1st. I will close by asking a question. Which is the middle verse in the Bible?

Yours Respectfully,

LULU E. BEAL.

In addition to Lulu's question we will ask the children who answer it to write it out in full and then tell who is spoken of and to whom are the words spoken.

HUDSON, IOWA, Mch. 28th, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—Here I am again with another letter. We had nice weather for over a month, it seemed just like spring. The grass was getting green, and the birds were singing. But this morning the ground was all covered with snow and it is still snowing. I have two sisters and three brothers. I hope to hear that Homer is getting better by this time. I will ask a question. How many times is and found in the Bible?

Yours Truly,

SADIE SWITZER.

Sadie in your next tell us some of the things Jesus did when he was here on earth.

AKRON, IND., Mar. 29th, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—I want to write for a prize too, but mamma thinks I am too little. May I come if I write two next month? I wrote one in January. I want to be a music teacher when I get big. I love music and singing. Our Sunday school will begin next Sunday, April 1st. I will answer Maude E. Hesshey's question. The middle verse in the Bible is Psalm cxviii, 18.

EFFIE SAYGER.

Yes, Effie, we like to have all the children write. Your letter is good but we think you made a mistake in giving the middle verse. Some one tell us if she is right.

Falls City, Neb., March 28, 1894.

Dear Editor:—This is my second letter for March although I have not seen the other in print yet. We have a week vacation now. The weather is pleasant. We have three months school yet. I go every day now. I am sorry that Homer is sick.

The young people will organize a King's Children, I expect to be one of them. I will ask a question: why was Jacob afraid of his brother. I am glad to see the children's page full this week.

Ada Judy.

RED OAK, IA., April 4th, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—We have in the Junior's meeting forty to fifty members every Sunday. This year we raised $69.00 for Missionary money. We had a week vacation. I have been going to the Baptist Sunday school for two hundred Sundays and my name is on the roll of honor. I will answer Delta Rowland's question. The Bible has the word Lord in it six thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine times.

CLEMMEN HENRICKS.
